

Abridged Biography | Dr Tebogo Jacob Rakgogo

Dr Tebogo Jacob Rakgogo is a 31-year-old academic at the Tshwane University of Technology (TUT), Faculty of Humanities, Department of Applied Languages. He has completed National Diploma, B-Tech and Master's Degree in Language Practice at Tshwane University of Technology. He has also managed to complete Postgraduate Certificate in Education (Senior Phase and FET), Honours Bachelor of Education specialising with Educational Management and Honours Bachelor of Arts in Translation Studies from the University of South Africa. His PhD in Onomastics was completed in record time in the year 2019 at the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg. He has been accepted to enrol for a Doctoral of Business Administration (DBA) in Higher Education Management at the University of Bath, United Kingdom where he is expected to officially start with the Programme on the 08th of November 2021.

He is involved in the Pan South African Language Board (PanSALB) as a Board Member on the Sesotho sa Leboa National Language Body and Sesotho sa Leboa National Lexicography Unit respectively. He is also a member of the TUT Institutional Forum where he is currently serving as the Chairperson of the structure (IF). He is also forming part of the TUT Council as an observer. He is the President of the Humanities and Social Sciences Alumni Association (HSSAA) under the umbrella of the National Institute for Humanities and Social Sciences (NIHSS). He is currently forming part of the TUT Task Team that is currently reviewing the 2005 language policy where he is also forming part of the Coordination Team.
