

Abridged Biography | Mr Phila Sithole

Phila Sithole is a leader in the Digital Transformation space, is purposeful and results driven. He has 16 years of work experience in the technology industry working for multinational companies like Siemens, General Electric, Alstom, Thales. He had leading roles in Technology implementation, Business Development and Programme Management. Inspired to work with the public and the private sector in responding and adopting 4IR technologies with the objective to create opportunities in South Africa. Phila holds an MBA, MTech Eng, Msc Electronic Engineering and Msc Project Management. He is a registered Professional Engineering Technologist with ECSA [Engineering Council of South Africa] and a Certified PMP [Project Management Professional] with PMI [Project Management Institute].
