

Abridged Biography | Prof Colin Thakur

Colin Thakur is a Professor in ICT at the Durban University of Technology. He also heads the Short Course Unit and is the InSETA Research Chair: Digitalisation. Colin was the Vice-Chairman (4 years) and Chairman (2 years) of the KZN Chapter of The Institute of Information Technology Professionals South Africa (IITPSA) and the national treasurer for one year. He has served on the inaugural Complaints and Compliance Commission of ICASA. Thakur's doctoral studies in ICT elevated him to an international level in e-voting.

He has since consulted for the Electoral Commission, The UNPD and several countries. He prolifically writes for the media and delivers a popular seminars on "Online Netiquette" and 4IR topics. He supervises Masters and PhD students in a range of disciplines from ICT to Management Science and Journalism.
